

Support Local Businesses:

The uncertainty of these times is daunting, we know, but we will get through it. Now more than ever, it's important that we stand together to support each other, and to support our local businesses! How can you do that when restaurants are closed for eat-in service, and even simply going to a store is concerning? Call and order ahead -- all you have to do is pick up the food or product you desire!

Many of our local restaurants are still open for takeout or delivery. See the list below and click on each for phone numbers and specifics!

And let's not forget our grocery stores that are working tirelessly to ensure the shelves are stocked as soon as product is delivered to them.
